Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

Transportation is a fundamental driver of the tourism system, and it is crucial to understand the linkage between transport and tourism and the benefits that tourism brings to the economy. This Special Issue focuses on the broad topic of “Economics of Transport and Tourism” and aims to provide a collection of high-quality theoretical and empirical papers covering the economics of transport and/or tourism.

Topics of relevance to this issue include but are not limited to: quantitative or qualitative analysis of transport and tourism; demand for travel to, from and between tourism destinations; travel industry analysis (airline, car rental, rail, travel package, and cruise); sentiment analysis of tourist reviews; transportation choice and tourists' behaviour; the impact of COVID-19 pandemic on travel and the tourism industry; the effect of transportation on tourism development; tourism benefits and transport policy; tourism-economic growth nexus; infrastructure, transport costs and trade; and sustainable tourism and transportation.
