Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue focuses on the latest developments and emerging trends in international finance, providing a comprehensive overview of the challenges and opportunities that shape the global economic landscape. The collection of articles within this issue delves into key areas such as cross-border capital flows, international trade, exchange rates, financial markets, and policy implications.

Contributions from leading scholars and practitioners explore the impact of geopolitical events, technological advancements, and regulatory changes on international financial markets. Additionally, the SI examines the role of sustainable finance in fostering economic resilience and addresses the evolving dynamics of global financial integration and FDIs.

The interdisciplinary nature of the research offers insights for academics, policymakers, and industry professionals seeking to understand the intricate interplay of factors influencing the international financial system. With a focus on contemporary issues and cutting-edge research methodologies, this Special Issue serves as a resource for those navigating the complexities of global finance in an ever-changing world.
