Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

The Special Issue aims at inspiring and motivating conceptual, empirical, theoretical, methodological, and case study research in various branches of finance with a focus on new perspectives and emerging challenges in corporate finance and investments.

The topics of the Special Issue cover, but are not limited to:

- Firm valuation, capital structure, cost of capital, loan contracting, payout policies, working capital management, and corporate risk management.
- IPO and private equity, ownership structure, mergers and acquisitions, joint venture, and strategic alliance.
- Corporate governance, executive compensation, firm resilience, and labor market.
- International financial management, globalization investment, and supply chain risk.
- Institutional investors, shareholder engagement and activism, CSR, and social capital.
- Impact investing, technological and demographic disruption, ESG, and sustainable finance.
- Financial innovation, big data investment, machine-learning-based forecasting, and capital budgeting.

Studies that apply asset pricing and market microstructure analysis into corporate finance issues are also welcome.
