

Special Issue

Leading Change in Disruptive Financial Times

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue welcomes submissions that delve into the transformative potential of leadership within both the financial sector and broader economic systems. We are particularly interested in exploring how leaders, organizations, and financial institutions can guide the world towards more resilient and sustainable futures in light of the disruptions we face today. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Leadership strategies for economic and financial resilience in times of crisis;
- The role of financial markets and institutions in responding to disruptive global challenges;
- Smart financial solutions that drive sustainability, including fintech and digital transformation;
- ESG (environmental, social, and governance) frameworks in leadership and risk management;
- Innovations in green finance and ethical banking as responses to economic volatility;
- The impact of leadership on fostering social responsibility and long-term financial health;
- Interdisciplinary approaches to navigating complex financial environments during disruptive events.
