Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue features original research articles, reviews, case studies, and perspectives that contribute to advancing our understanding of climate change adaptation strategies for tourism activity and landscape management.

Topics within the scope of the Special Issue include but are not limited to:

- Understanding the impacts of climate change on landscape and tourism activity;
- Identifying the challenges and opportunities for tourism industry professionals in adapting to climate change;
- Exploring innovative and sustainable adaptation strategies for landscapes and tourism activity;
- Assessing the effectiveness of current adaptation measures and identifying gaps in the literature;
- Examining the role of stakeholders in climate change adaptation for landscapes and tourism activity;
- Assessing the vulnerability of wine landscapes to climate change and identifying adaptation measures that can enhance the resilience of the wine tourism industry;
- Exploring the potential of emerging technologies such as artificial intelligence, big data, and blockchain to support climate change adaptation and resilience.
