Message from the Guest Editors

The goal of this Special Issue is to collect papers (original research articles and review papers) to provide insights about case studies, theoretical advancements, methodological innovations, and empirical research that highlight successful practices, challenges, and lessons learned in implementing sustainable development goals through effective governance and spatial planning.

This Special Issue will welcome manuscripts that link the following themes:

- The impact of governance on sustainable urban and rural development strategies;
- Challenges and paths for sustainable urban and rural governance;
- Theoretical frameworks and governance mechanisms for sustainable development;
- The integration of environmental sustainability into spatial planning processes;
- Climate change adaptation and resilience in spatial planning;
- The intersection of spatial planning with environmental, social, and economic sustainability;
- The role of technology and big data in enhancing governance and spatial planning;
- Multi-scale governance cases for sustainable development;
- Case studies of sustainable spatial planning initiatives.
