Message from the Guest Editor

In this Special Issue, We welcome topics including, but not limited to:

1. How my fossil take part in the history of my taxa. Why it differs from the others and what was its descendants or why it has disappeared? All paleobiogeographical topics are welcomed
2. Moreover, how it interacts with others taxa, how it could survive in front of the others, what was its paleoecology? his fossil was a living organism, that breathe, feed, fight, breed, rest...where and how with coexisting organisms? Paleoeological topics are especially welcomed.

Not to be only focus on none taxon at one time on one site: sometimes we lose the fact this fossil was a living organism, not to have only one paragraph as conclusion in our paper: this is the challenge I propose to you.
