Message from the Guest Editors

This special issue publishes articles based on the results of mathematical modeling for solving engineering and socio-economic problems. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Mathematical modeling for scientific and engineering applications;
- Optimization and control in engineering applications;
- Analytical and numerical methods for solving engineering and socio-economic problems;
- Integration of economic and mathematical models and approaches;
- Innovation in an educational context;
- Improvement of the mathematical description of modern evolutionary, spasmodic and impulsive processes and phenomena.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The journal Mathematics publishes high-quality, refereed papers that treat both pure and applied mathematics. The journal highlights articles devoted to the mathematical treatment of questions arising in physics, chemistry, biology, statistics, finance, computer science, engineering and sociology, particularly those that stress analytical/algebraic aspects and novel problems and their solutions. One of the missions of the journal is to serve mathematicians and scientists through the prompt publication of significant advances in any branch of science and technology, and to provide a forum for the discussion of new scientific developments.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), RePEc, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Mathematics) / CiteScore - Q1 (General Mathematics)
