2022 BEST PHD THESIS AWARD FOR PHD STUDENT AND DOCTOR

Dear Colleagues,

The journal Medicina is inviting applications for the 2022 Best PhD Thesis Award. This prize will be awarded to a PhD student or doctor who has produced a thesis with highly anticipated academic potential. The applications will be assessed by an evaluation committee led by Editor-in-Chief, Prof. Dr. Edgaras Stankevičius.

Eligibility and Requirements:

(a) The candidate must be a PhD student or a doctor who has produced a thesis with highly anticipated academic potential.

(b) The PhD thesis must be their original work.

(c) The PhD thesis must be defended in 2022.

(d) Applicants are required to submit the following documents:

– An executive summary of the PhD thesis of around 3000 words in English;

– A letter from the PhD supervisor recommending the candidate for consideration for this award;

– The candidate's CV, including a list of publications connected with the thesis;

– An electronic copy of the PhD thesis;

– A scanned copy of the PhD diploma (or certificate of studying at a school or research institute as a PhD student going to graduate or participate in graduation thesis defenses).

Selection Criteria:

– Quality of resume and publications;

– Relevance of the candidate and research description;

– Novelty of the candidate's PhD thesis;

– Strength of the recommendation letter;

– Anticipated academic potential;

– Originality and impact of the research.

Prizes:

– Bonus (CHF 1000);

– Certificate;

– Offer to publish a featured paper in Medicina with the article processing charge (APC) waived for submission before 30 April 2024.

The application deadline is 28 February 2023. The winner will be announced on the Medicina website by the end of 30 April 2023.
