The editorial board of Molecules invites you to submit an article to a Special Issue entitled "Recent Advances in Cementitious Materials". Please kindly note that the focus of Molecules is chemistry.

This Special Issue invites the submission of works related to the preparation and microstructural characteristics of novel composite cementitious materials, as well as their properties and applications in different fields. This Special Issue may be very useful for readers to gain a greater understanding of recent advances in cementitious materials. For authors, the issue will be a good opportunity to publish their work after peer review by expert researchers in cementitious materials. Review articles by experts in the field will also be welcome.

Molecules is indexed by the Science Citation Index Expanded (Web of Science), MEDLINE (PubMed) and other databases, and has an Impact Factor of 4.927 (2021).

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the premier open access journal dedicated to experimental organic chemistry, and now in its 25th year of publication, the papers published in Molecules span from classical synthetic methodology to natural product isolation and characterization, as well as physicochemical studies and the applications of these molecules as pharmaceuticals, catalysts and novel materials. Pushing the boundaries of the discipline, we invite papers on multidisciplinary topics bridging biochemistry, biophysics and materials science, as well as timely reviews and topical issues on cutting edge fields in all these areas.
