Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

The journal Molecules has asked me to be guest editor of a Special Issue on the topic of “Isotope Effects 2019”. This is a continuation of a previous, very successful volume. This volume will have approximately twenty contributions, which can either be review papers or cover new research. Subjects can typically be kinetic isotope effects, reaction mechanisms, isotope effects in H-bond research, isotope effects as a tool in structural studies, use of isotope effects in food research, theoretical calculations of isotope effects, or use of isotope effects in environmental studies, to mention some examples, but papers dealing with all types of isotope effects are invited.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the premier open access journal dedicated to experimental organic chemistry, and now in its 25th year of publication, the papers published in Molecules span from classical synthetic methodology to natural product isolation and characterization, as well as physicochemical studies and the applications of these molecules as pharmaceuticals, catalysts and novel materials. Pushing the boundaries of the discipline, we invite papers on multidisciplinary topics bridging biochemistry, biophysics and materials science, as well as timely reviews and topical issues on cutting edge fields in all these areas.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges \(APC\) paid by authors or their institutions.
