Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue invites authors to submit full-length research articles, short communications, and review papers to Molecules. Experimental and/or computational works on all aspects of energetic materials are welcomed, while papers including the following contents are preferred: (1) novel synthesis approaches for propellants, explosives, pyrotechnics, and their fuels, oxidizers, additives, and catalysts; (2) advanced characterization of the micro-/nano-structure, composition, and fundamental properties (thermal, mechanical, etc.) of energetic materials; (3) advanced diagnostic and mechanistic studies on the ignition and combustion characteristics of energetic materials; and (4) other works that address the current challenges of the application of energetic materials.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the premier open access journal dedicated to experimental organic chemistry, and now in its 25th year of publication, the papers published in Molecules span from classical synthetic methodology to natural product isolation and characterization, as well as physicochemical studies and the applications of these molecules as pharmaceuticals, catalysts and novel materials. Pushing the boundaries of the discipline, we invite papers on multidisciplinary topics bridging biochemistry, biophysics and materials science, as well as timely reviews and topical issues on cutting edge fields in all these areas.
