Message from the Guest Editors

Digital technologies have been introduced into implant dentistry and oral-maxillofacial surgery. This allows a computer-aided approach aiming to simplify clinical procedures, minimizing invasiveness and morbidity for the patient. New protocols and surgical techniques are available applying the latest technologies to oral-maxillofacial surgery and implantology, and clinical and in vitro studies are in progress to validate these. The aim of this Special Issue is to propose innovative methods and protocols related to recent and upcoming technologies applied to implant dentistry and oral-maxillofacial surgery. Literature reviews and clinical and in vitro studies on these topics as well as innovative protocols and reports will be considered for publication in this Special Issue.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Methods and Protocols (ISSN 2409-9279) is an open access journal devoted to the publication of new procedural approaches and cutting-edge methodological developments. The ultimate objective of this new forum of scientific communication is to provide researchers with an indispensable tool, enabling better use of the latest scientific technologies. With a broad and totally interdisciplinary focus, Methods and Protocols was established with the objective of facilitating cross-fertilization and cross-talk in the scientific arena. Methods and protocols in Life Sciences, Chemistry, Biomedical Sciences, Engineering, and in their intersections such as Biotechnology and Nanotechnology will constitute the core of the journal. However, we anticipate that other fundamental disciplines such as Physics or Geology will be rapidly incorporated.
