Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue of NeuroSci is dedicated to recent advances in nervous systems, neurons and neural circuits, neuroanatomy, neurophysiology, neuropharmacology, molecular and cellular neuroscience, neuropsychology, psychiatry, cognitive and behavioral neuroscience, and computational neuroscience. It comprises a diverse selection of exclusive papers of the Editorial Board Members (EBMs) of NeuroSci. It focuses on highlighting recent interesting investigations conducted in the laboratories or clinics of our journal's EBMs and represents our journal as an attractive open-access publishing platform for neurology-related research data or reviews.
