Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

Continuous advances in the nanotechnology field, particularly related to polymeric nanobiomaterials, are greatly associated with the development of new particulate delivery systems for the nasal delivery of drugs and antigens.

This Special Issue welcomes original research papers and review articles highlighting recent developments and innovations in the area of nasal drug delivery. Articles covering the synthesis, development, physicochemical characterization and in vitro and in vivo evaluation of new drug/vaccine delivery systems based on polymeric nanomaterials, designed for the nasal route of administration, are welcomed.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.
