Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

The aim of this Special Issue is to provide a comprehensive update of the current progress in duckweed research and applications. Contributions in forms of both original research papers and reviews from a broad scope of disciplines related to duckweed research and applications (e.g., morphology, taxonomy, and ecology including ecological interactions, ecotoxicology, environmental monitoring and remediation, physiology, biochemistry, genetics, omics, biotechnology, biomass production and its uses, etc.) are welcome. We hope that this overview will be of interest to all those involved in basic research or potential applications of duckweeds, and will also attract researchers from various other fields.

Deadline for manuscript submissions:

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Plants is an open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to plant function, its physiology, biology, taxonomy, stresses, and its interactions with other organisms. It publishes original research articles, reviews, reports, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. In original research papers, it is important that full experimental details are provided. We also encourage timely reviews and commentaries on topics of interest to the plant research community.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, PubAg, AGRIS, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Plant Sciences) / CiteScore - Q1 (Ecology, Evolution, Behavior and Systematics)
