Message from the Guest Editor

Metal nanoparticles and nanocomposites have significantly contributed to the development in the field of nanotechnology. The investigation of nanocomposites has emerged as a significant research area, due to their exceptionally broad range of activities, allowing reactions to be achieved more effectively and efficiently. This Special Issue focuses on the recent advances in metal nanoparticles and nanocomposites, and their applications, and covers all the related fields of study. Special attention will be paid to the following topics:

- Synthesis of metal nanoparticles incorporated on polymers;
- Green synthesis of metal nanoparticles and their applications;
- Polymer nanocomposites;

This Special Issue enables academies of science, research scientists, engineers, and regulatory bodies to promote their scientific and technical advancements in the research of metal nanoparticles and nanocomposites. We would like to invite authors to submit their latest research in the form of original full articles, communications, or reviews on this topic.
