Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue on "Recent Advances in Processed Materials for Energy Applications" aims to inventory the latest achievements in the development and manufacture of contemporary materials used in energy applications. This Special Issue welcomes papers concerning the fabrication, synthesis and design of materials and related technologies, including atomic layer deposition (ALD), composite nanostructured carbon-based materials, semiconductors, photovoltaics, conductive polymers and research on their structural properties, including the testing and characterization of novel materials or the introduction of different types of hybrid materials for future energy technologies.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Processes (ISSN 2227-9717) provides an advanced forum for process/system-related research in chemistry, biology, material, energy, environment, food, pharmaceutical, manufacturing and allied engineering fields. The journal publishes regular research papers, communications, letters, short notes and reviews. Our aim is to encourage researchers to publish their experimental, theoretical and computational results in as much detail as necessary. There is no restriction on paper length or number of figures and tables.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, Inspec, AGRIS, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Engineering, Chemical) / CiteScore - Q2 (Chemical Engineering (miscellaneous))
