Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

You are invited to contribute to the Special Issue entitled “Islamization and Islamication of the Medieval Middle East.”

We propose the following topics, but we shall be delighted to accept other related subjects as well.

Change of regional capital cities;
The role of Muslim immigrants in the Islamization and Islamication of the local population;
Merchants as cultural agents;
The impact of the Muslim diet on non-Muslim cuisine;
Transformation of pilgrimage destinations;
Conversion of churches and synagogues into mosques;
The impact of the Muslim clothing code on non-Muslim communities;
Between Umayyad and Abbasid conversion policy

Message from the Editorial Board

Fresh developments in the disciplines that consistently make significant contributions to our understanding of religious personality, authority, devotion, and community - disciplines ranging from psychology, sociology, and anthropology to history, art history, philosophy, literary criticism, and political science – fuel general, as well as scholarly, interest in the world's religions.

Religions is inviting innovative and comparative contributions. Please consider Religions as an exceptional, exciting enterprise ready to reward your trust, attention, and participation.
