Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

Despite the many domestic efforts and international programs that we have witnessed in recent years, there has also been a marked increase in the weaknesses of business operations in different countries. Public program failures, business scandals, corruption, and other obstacles may also occur in the future and limit public and business operations' effectiveness. Thus, we need to reflect on how to manage risk in a less unpredictable organizational environment. The purpose of this Special Issue is for researchers to analyze problems with risk management in different areas of organizational operations and to propose improvements. Papers that involve different perspectives and organizational problems are welcome.
