Message from the Guest Editor

In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Developing criteria for sustainability-related work behaviours and evaluation standards.
- Training, sources of information, or reactions to performance management for sustainability.
- Evaluation of applications of performance management to motivate individual, team, and organizational behaviour.
- Implementing performance feedback systems to guide workplace sustainability behaviours.
- The impact of contextual factors such as industry, legislation, geographic location, employee demographics on the management of sustainability performance.
- Reactions and social distortion relating to appraising for sustainability goals.
- Applications in HR for pay and promotions as related to employee sustainability performance.

I look forward to receiving your contributions.
