Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

In recent years, sustainability has garnered significant interest as citizens and communities have recognized the need to address environmental and social concerns. In addition, mounting pressures are being exerted on industrial organizations to operate sustainably via the adoption of responsible practices such as circular strategies, clean processes and ethical operations.

In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Sustainable supply chain;
- Sustainability of the intertwined supply network;
- Circular economy;
- Circular supply chain;
- Digitalization and sustainability;
- Supply chain maturity and sustainability;
- Resilience, survivability and sustainability;
- Collaboration, partnership and sustainability;
- Human centricity and sustainability;
- Environmental impact assessment;
- Social responsibility in supply chain;
- Innovation and eco-design;
- Sustainable workforce and upskilling.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.
