Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue seeks to advance the current state of research on CSR, sustainable behavior, production and consumption. The overarching aim is to explore new perspectives on sustainability, sustainable production and consumption, by focusing on behaviour change (at firm and consumer level) on sustainability-related topics. Thus, interdisciplinary contributions are encouraged, and submissions may relate to the following broad theme examples:

- Corporate Social Responsibility
- Green business models
- Circular economy
- Farms and Sustainable productions
- Marketing and facilitating sustainable consumption choices
- Promoting green behavior, awareness, and mindfulness
- Sustainable consumers and lifestyles
- Green behaviors
- Consumer behaviour
