Message from the Guest Editors

In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- ESG framework, CG structure/practices, and relationship with firm performance;
- ESG reporting/disclosing and CG mechanisms: measuring quantity and quality of firm performance;
- CG mechanisms and relationship with social and environmental reporting in private and public sectors;
- CG and social and environmental reporting in knowledge-intensive firms;
- Measuring and disclosing social and environmental performance: trends and perspectives in different CG models/structures;
- CG and institutional/contextual determinants of the accountability quality of social and environmental reporting processes and documents;
- Link between CG and social/financial accountability;
- Diversity in CG and relationships with firm performance;
- Corporate social and environmental performance and financial performance: moderating and mediating the effects of CG.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.
