Message from the Guest Editors

In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- ESG framework, CG structure/practices, and relationship with firm performance;
- ESG reporting/disclosing and CG mechanisms: measuring quantity and quality of firm performance;
- CG mechanisms and relationship with social and environmental reporting in private and public sectors;
- CG and social and environmental reporting in knowledge-intensive firms;
- Measuring and disclosing social and environmental performance: trends and perspectives in different CG models/structures;
- CG and institutional/contextual determinants of the accountability quality of social and environmental reporting processes and documents;
- Link between CG and social/financial accountability;
- Diversity in CG and relationships with firm performance;
- Corporate social and environmental performance and financial performance: moderating and mediating the effects of CG.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
