Message from the Guest Editors

Sustainable transportation is a term that covers many aspects of technology, management and policy. Social and environmental impacts should also be taken into account. Some of the proposed ideas may require changes in travelers' behavior. Therefore, this Special Issue "Transportation Technique, Management and Practice: Sustainability and Safety" welcomes papers that cover detailed solutions, wide area systems or theoretical models of the discussed problems, which will finally lead to increasing safety levels of modern sustainable transportation and will mean that transportation is less vulnerable to emerging threats.
