Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue will highlight new opportunities and challenges for Circular Economy and Sustainable Business Performance Management, focusing on technological advancements and management initiatives, including public–private partnerships between stakeholders. We welcome papers on:

- The use of design practices to specifically empower product design and development according to specific measurement performances, such as design for X guidelines and checklists, and to give strategic directions to shift the linear lifecycle into a circular one;
- The development of methods and practices able to systematically and practically measure and assess the circularity degree of a given system and to take into account all the heterogeneous resources involved in its lifecycle;
- The development of a Circular Economy maturity model, based on the definition of a set of KPIs for CE performance assessment, aimed at both defining companies' level of readiness in terms of circularity and proposing a roadmap to better address CE;
- Future perspectives on Circular Economy and Sustainable Business Performance Management.
