Message from the Guest Editors

The main purpose of this Special Issue is to underline the interdisciplinary connections between the environment and human health, focusing principally on new ideas and suggestions to promote both sustainable development and human health and well-being. The overall goal is to create a new approach to the analysis of human impacts on the natural environment and, conversely, to determine how the environment can modulate human lifestyles and behaviors, and thus human health. This Special Issue is intended to integrate knowledge on these themes, adding relevant and innovative findings to the existing scientific literature.
