Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

Our aim is to compile a Special Issue that highlights research on recent trends in nature-based tourism, protected areas, and sustainability. Papers can address emerging trends, provide innovative methodological approaches, and/or challenge current assumptions in thinking about nature-based tourism, protected areas, and sustainability. Topics may include:

- emerging trends in nature-based tourism and protected areas (event tourism, adventure racing, health and wellness tourism, new technologies, changing demographics, motivations and preferences);
- interactions between nature-based tourism, communities, and protected areas;
- governance and adaptation;
- planning and management of protected areas for nature-based tourism and sustainability;
- responses to environmental, social, and economic change and disturbance;
- indigenous approaches to conservation and nature-based tourism development;
- social–ecological systems and resilience thinking;
- innovative approaches to management and use of technology.
