Message from the Guest Editors

We are organizing a Special Issue of Sustainability on Advances in sustainable psychology and behavior: Managing and developing people within the external and organizational environment. The venue is a peer-reviewed open-access journal that publishes articles and communications in the interdisciplinary area of sustainability.

The overall purpose of this Special Issue is to focus on people's (e.x., employee, consumer) perceptions and behaviors within the external and organizational context to better understand and manage people at work. Furthermore, we look forward to the enrichment topics in psychological and behavioral sustainability. For instance:

- 1) employee relations
- 2) consumer relations and the contingency approach
- 3) the emerging field of positive organizational behavior
- 4) Information technology and the e-business revolution, and implications for business.
