Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue is expected to contribute remarkable knowledge about professional behavior risk management and safety sustainability to the relevant literature and be helpful for the concerned authorities and stakeholders to develop effective interventions to reduce industrial accidents and fatalities and protect workers' health.

This Special Issue publishes high-quality and peer-reviewed papers with a broad scope, including, but not limited to, the aging workforce, human factors, occupational ergonomics, biomechanics, risk perception, safety and health management, professional behavior risk management, and safety sustainability. Papers related to occupational safety and health and risk management are also welcome. The listed keywords suggest just a few of the many possibilities. Please consult the editor for further information.
