Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

Integrated reporting represents the most prominent innovation in the field of corporate reporting. Fostered by the work of the International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC), a number of organizations around the world have started to engage with integrated reporting, merging financial and non-financial information with the aim to promote a more cohesive approach to corporate disclosure (Rinaldi et al., 2018; Caglio et al., 2020). Given this background, we are pleased to announce a Special Issue of Sustainability with the theme of integrated reporting and corporate sustainability. The Special Issue is open to both conceptual studies and empirical analysis based on qualitative as well as quantitative methodological approaches.

For further reading, please visit the Special Issue website.
