Message from the Guest Editor

There have been numerous advances in the knowledge and methods for veterinary public health in recent decades. The production of knowledge in public health continues to grow due to global transformations in all areas of human activity. Veterinary Sciences is thus launching this Special Issue “Advances in Veterinary Public Health” to provide researchers with the opportunity for their high-quality and high-impact research articles to benefit from high visibility. Following an editorial line committed to quality and originality, we are open to submissions of manuscripts for this Special Issue, which will increase our knowledge in the area of veterinary public health, [...]

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Veterinary Sciences (ISSN 2306-7381) is an international and interdisciplinary scholarly open access journal that aims at publishing research in all fields of veterinary medicine in a democratic way. We encourage scientists to publish their original research articles, reviews, communications, and short notes in as much detail as possible. Articles submitted that involve subjecting animals to unnecessary pain or suffering will not be accepted, and all articles must be submitted with the necessary ethical approval (please refer to the Ethical Guidelines for more information).

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, Embase, PubAg, AGRIS, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Veterinary Sciences) / CiteScore - Q2 (General Veterinary)
